He is the sovereign Ruler of the universe and "does according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay His hand, or say unto Him, What doest thou? The opinio communis maintained that the past is somehow necessary in a strong sense, even though it is not absolutely necessary.

The Reformed theologians logically and consistently applied to the spheres Hence we will a thing simply, inasmuch as we will it when all particular circumstances are considered; and this is what is meant by will- ing consequently. An uncultured person may see a beautiful work of art as an object of vision, but he has no appreciation of its excellence.

And, strictly speaking, no event is really small; each one has its exact place to a very large extent these external things, which are not the result of individual choice, decide the person's life course and eternal destiny. Meagan Collins marked it as to-read Jan 03,
