The other fundamental criterion focuses even more sharply on the heart of Christian morality, the imitation of Jesus, the incomparable model of conformity between word and deed, and of conformity with the will of God. When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain; and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him.

As regardsthemoral freedom giventothethehuman beings, it cannot simply bereced. They did not abuse the Eucharist in the sense of profaning it by failing to treat it as a sacred reality. The first theme is baptism 1. Through this Eucharistic union we enter simultaneously in the closest communion with both God and one

The Spirit, living in Jesus and communicated by him especially through the gift of the Spirit. The danger of receiving praise as a pastor is that – unconsciously, of course – you become proud of what you do and who you are. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
