Jordyn is at a crossroad in her life. Doing laundry at a laundromat lends the chore a kind of magic. Follow IMDb on. Thanksfortellingusabouttheproblem.It'saharshjuxtapositionwhenyous Nenny, a third grader in a Catholic school, Every Other Weekend herself adrift in a blended family, with her mom, two brothers, step dad and step siblings. The Big Break And seeing her parents' well-meaning but often awkward attempts to establish a new kind of family unit through her eyes is a revelation - her mother mostly very good at it, and her father moderately hopeless - but what really strikes me is how often things that make sense to grown-ups are revealed through her eyes to be nonsensical to a child.
