These are supernatural events believed to be the result of the divine condition.
But these names do play an indispensable role in the total movement of history-and-thought by which the eternal God has made Himself known to the sons of men. Because of the present recrudescence of interest in this subject, a brief discussion is necessary from the point of view of the general treatment of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit. Conception of God. At the same time, there appeared also tongues as of fire, resting upon the heads of all, in fulfillment of the prediction of John the Baptist that Jesus should baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire Matt
