Worth reading, I would say, especially for pastors and students, but if you're just getting started, NTPG is far superior. Overview This survey of intertestamental Judaism illuminates the customs and controversies that provide an essential background for understanding the New Testament. PeoplesoftheNewTestamentWorldistext.GormanThePrincetonSeminaryBul I highly recommend this volume. Julius Scott Jr. Rather, in Jesus, Young presents an Eastern or Semitic theologian, one who employs a living, vibrant theology. ThatshouldcomeasnosurprisetoJewsortoChristians,althoughitoftendoe is laying down the foundations needed to understand the New Testament. The coverage of the period before the appearance of Christianity demonstrates the profound influence of both Persian and Hellenistic cultures on Judaism—an important condition that would subsequently play a role in the relationship between Judaism and Christianity.
