Rather, since causality as such is aesthetic, and since nonhumans are not that different from humans, the new approach would be to form aesthetic-causal alliances with nonhumans. The acquisition of language falls under the sign of Eros – all communication is essentially erotic, all relations are erotic. Ontological Anarchy FTW!

And since many people in repressed moralistic racist societies secretly desire
There is nothing special to think, no special critique that will get rid of the stains of coexistence. But in the airless vault of our civilization, where nearly every experience is mediated, where reality is strained through the deadening mesh of consensus-perception, we lose touch with food as nourishment ; we begin to construct for ourselves personae based The Temporary Autonomous Zone what we consume, treating products as projections of our yearning for the authentic. Self-denial as radical praxis, the Leveller impulse, tastes of millenarian
