Researching Columbus: Encounters and Exchanges

Columbus's letter on the first voyage is the first known document announcing the results of the voyage. In his letter, Christopher Columbus claims to have discovered and taken possession of Indian villages, as can be found in Vespucci's letters or in Columbus's own journal. Here too, Columbus seemed to be aware of history.

APPENDIX B. The letter to the Lady Juana, which gives Columbus's own It is so striking an illustration of the character of the man that we print here an abstract .
