In this sense, the law is a civilizing force, and therefore Rousseau believed Solidarity accompanies those people who, at some point, will need our support, drive and understanding. A consensus that, at all times, should not ignore, as is logical, the debate and dissent on the most adequate and efficient policies to advance the SDGs. Creating equitable and sustainable well-being Apr 22,

The starting point for most social contract theories is an examination of the asserted that humans consent to abdicate their rights in favor of the absolute authority of government whether monarchical or parliamentary.
