Through that work, she had established a rapport that enabled her to propose an OWL Circle workshop to the center, and she had developed the intercultural skills needed to make the workshop rewarding for. Otherwise I would have just been the white lady coming in trying to steal people's stories. Women who were 60 or older at the turn of the 21st century have lived through some of recent history's most momentous moments--and yet these women often believe that their personal lives and stories are insignificant, not worthy of being recorded for future generations.
