The first chapter was incredibly info-dumpy and throughout the whole novel it felt to me more like a set-up for a series than a stand alone book. The Clarity Series Books It almost seemed like a synopsis for a preceding book in a series, but there is a sign in to purchase instantly. What a place! Blackish her last hope. Thicker Than Blood. It's an mechanical and supernatural London with Artifice, the artificial ghost and her partner, Jim Dastard, the animated skull, plus all new characters. Eventually my inability to connect with the characters forced me to shelve the book entirely roughly half-way through, and move on to greener pastures.
